SOUPER BOWL SUNDAY FEB 6 & 7

The St. Cecilia Soup Kitchen Committee assisted by the youth of our parish, are like many people in Rockaway, passionate about giving back to their community and making a positive impact in the lives of others.

As hard as it may be to believe, the problems of hunger and poverty exist right here in Rockaway and Dover, and we often feel that as regular citizens, we can't make a difference. But I write today to tell you that through the Souper Bowl of Caring, everyone at St. Cecilia Parish can help care for our neighbors in need.

Will you please help us by sharing your pocket change with us on Super Bowl Saturday/Sunday, Feb 6 & 7, after all the masses? Every penny collected will be donated directly to feeding the hungry at Faith Kitchen in Dover. Your donations are used by our volunteers to purchase food that we prepare here in Hayes Hall and then deliver to Faith Kitchen in Dover. The St. Cecilia Soup Kitchen Committee is always in need of new volunteers. If you are interested in learning more, please call Pattie Fitzgerald at 973-625-0841. Thank you!

SEE THE INSERT IN THE BULLETIN

St. Cecilia's 8th grade students participated in a project called "A Bundle of Memories". Each student had to assume the role of an immigrant coming to America in the late 1800's and bring with them a bundle to help them in their new home. They presented both oral and written reports including items to remind them of their homeland, to help them in their new life, to entertain them on the boat, and something to express their culture. The students were both creative and entertaining. Many dressed the part, spoke in their native language, and wrote detailed reports on the sights and sounds of this new land.

Calling all St. Cecilia School graduates from the Classes of 2006, 2001, 1996, 1991, 1986, 1981, 1976, 1971, 1966 and 1961! We are planning an Alumni Reunion dinner for Saturday, June 11th, 2016 at The Exchange restaurant in Rockaway! Tickets are $55 per person. For ticket information email skark2013@gmail.com, or call Amy at 973-343-2337.

My dear parishioners,

Today is the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time as we gather to celebrate the Lord's Day. The Scriptural texts bring before us the power of God's Word and the effect that it brings to the community of believers. In both the Old Testament lection and the Gospel we see how the liturgical proclamation of God's word commands attentive listening by the assembly as a sign of respect and in anticipation of hearing God's voice. We sing in today's Responsorial Psalm, "Your words, Lord, are spirit and life," and indeed they are!

God's word motivates us, inspires us, encourages us, challenges us and chastises us! The word of God positions us to enter into this Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy. In today's Gospel we find the Lord Jesus reading from God's word at the Synagogue in Nazareth. From the Book of the Prophet Isaiah is the announcement of the jubilee year, "a year acceptable to the Lord." During this blessed time wonders occur and mercy is abundant.

This Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy is a rich time which invites us to approach the throne of mercy so that we might experience the generosity of the Lord's compassion. In the upcoming weeks I will share with you the various opportunities we will have to visit and pass through the "Holy Door" and the plenary indulgence which is associated with it. Through the Sunday bulletin and homilies we will learn about the Jubilee Year and the graces which emanate from it. This is a blessed time and we want to make sure that we benefit from the spiritual riches which are to be found during this Year of Mercy.

God bless you!
Father Zig

ST. FRANCIS DE SALES,
Bishop and Doctor of the Church,
January 24 — Patron of Writers

ST. FRANCIS, son of the Count de Sales, was born near Annecy in Savoy, in 1567. showing an early inclination for the ecclesiastical state he received tonsure at eleven years of age. Soon afterward, he was sent to Paris to study philosophy and theology. He went on to the University of Padua where he was honored with a doctorate in both canon and civil law.

On his return home, with the reluctant consent of his parents who had envisioned other things for him, Francis entered the priesthood. Little later, he took upon himself the arduous mission of Chablais, where Calvinism had obtained a stronghold. In the midst of the most enormous difficulties, he pursued his labors with apostolic heroism, and was rewarded with the most wonderful fruits of conversion. While engaged in this work he received his appointment as coadjutor to the Bishop of Geneva, whom he succeeded as Bishop in 1602.

He now began to labor zealously in his diocese for the clergy and people, and extended his labors elsewhere, preaching the Lenten sermons at various places outside of the diocese. He also composed several instructive works for the edification of the faithful. In 1610 he founded the Order of the Visitation, with the help of the Baroness de Chantal, now St. Jane Frances.

In the midst of his constant pastoral work Francis found time to write the book that has made him known to succeeding ages: Introduction to a Devout Life (1609). It shows how ordinary life can be sanctified; no problem is too small for its author: dress, entertainments, flirtations, etc. His one concern is how to lead the reader to the love of God and the imitation of Christ.

In an age when fanaticism was the rule in controversies, Francis manifested an exceptional restraint and meekness. His pastoral zeal, which was anxious for the sanctification of the laity and the adaptation of the religious life to the new needs, marks a turning point in the history of spirituality. He died in 1622 with the word "Jesus" on his lips, and was canonized in 1665 by Pope Alexander VII.

PRAYER: Father in heaven, You prompted St. Francis de Sales to become all things to all for the salvation of all. May his example inspire us to dedicated love in the service of our brothers and sisters, Amen
